2010 MINUTES FRIDAY MORNING

The one hundred and forty first annual session of the Central Indiana Association of Separate Baptist in Christ, Inc. convened at the Midway Campground on Friday, September 10, 2010 at 10:00 AM. The Moderator, Rev. Eddie Freeman asked Rev. Ray Unger to lead the body in prayer. Bro. Eddie welcomed all in attendance and expressed his appreciation to all for attending to the 141st association. Bro. Dan Swanson led the congregation in singing “To God Be The Glory”, Sis. Mary Ann Sink accompanied on the piano.

The moderator asked Bro. Jimmie McGaha to come forward to lead the devotional service. He read Matthew 6:25-33. Bro. Jimmie also read a commentary encouraging us to continue to strive to live for God. Prayer requests were taken and Bro. Roger Sink led prayer around the altar.

The Moderator asked Assistant Moderator Rev. Mark Polston to lead the congregation in the pledges to the American and Christian Flags, and the Holy Bible. The Moderator asked that all standing delegates, which include all Ministers, Deacons, and Sunday School Superintendents, to stand and constitute a quorum. A total of 30 standing delegates were present. The Moderator asked the delegates if they will work peaceably and in Godly counsel with one another during this setting of the association. All agreed and Bro. Benny Walden led in prayer.

God's Word aides us when we suffer. He will give us what we need if we will ask. Denial will not bind God's Word. Even if people will not listen to the Word it is still real and still the right way. God's Word is not bound by what a person believes. The Word of God is not bound by culture or tradition. The Word of God will change us if we will submit to God's will. God's Word is not bound by ignorance. We must study to show ourselves approved. The Word of God is not bound by religion. We need to love the Word of God. The Word of God is not bound by opinion or bigotry. God's Word is truth. God's Word is for all. God's Word is not bound.

Ed echoed the same sentiments as Mark and Jerry of the people they visited and spoke of the 5 converts they saw accept the Lord as their Savior. Bro. Ed encouraged all the churches to have one of the three of them come to your church to speak on the trip. Bro. Ed encouraged us to pray for the Ivory Coast mission work and the Christians who are working there. Bro. Jerry spoke of one of the services they had in a village where the Chief would not allow them to have service and the message Bro. Mark preached that evening. Bro. Jerry testified of the work Bro. It was a blessed event to hear the word of the Lord in two languages. Bro. Jerry spoke of the revival spirit felt in Africa and the love and respect the three of them have one toward the other. Bro. Jerry stated he hopes something he presents today will encourage each of us. He read II Samuel 9:1-3 & Hebrews 12:12 & 13. God's will is that we be healed spiritually. Sighting examples of physical needs he has seen in Africa Bro. Jerry compared the spiritual needs with the physical needs of a poor country like Ivory Coast. We must care about people. We have to reach-out and care for the spiritually crippled. Kindness is a language understood worldwide. Let whosoever take of the water of life freely. We must spread God's Word. We may be the only Bible some will hear. We must do more than pray. No matter where we do God's work we must not refuse to reach out. We need to get over our bias of how people look or what they claim to be. We must witness to all who God allows us to come in contact with. We can eat at the Kings table everyday if we want to. "There is a balm in Gilead" there is a power of healing. Jesus Christ is the answer. We need to introduce Jesus to those who don't know him. Let's set our affections on things above.

We then sang "Come and Dine" & "There's Power in the Blood" while shaking hands. Testimonies were shared. Bro. Eddie suggested the committees meet during the next hour while waiting for supper. The consolation of Israel is "This Man". When he was 12 years old "This Man" was teaching in the temple. When man was created "This Man" breathed into his nostrils and he became a living soul. "This Man" turned water into wine. "This Man" is unique! "This Man" fed the multitude with five loaves and two fishes. "This Man" ruined every funeral he came in contact with. "This Man" is fantastic. "This Man" came to seek and save the lost. "This Man" healed the sick and afflicted. "This Man" calmed the troubled sea. "This Man" is our creator. "This Man" walked on water. "This Man" volunteered to leave Heaven to come to Earth to die for our sin. "This Man" gave his life freely for you. "This Man" loves you and me. "This Man" is the beginning and the end. "This Man" is the Christ the Son of the living God. "This Man" is waiting for the Father to give him charge to go get his children. We need to know "This Man".

Mark expressed thankfulness for the opportunity to be in these services. He read Psalms 96. Bro. Mark called our attention to the words righteously and righteousness in verses 10 & 13. We must choose each day to live for God. God has determined what is right and has shared with us what is right. Everybody has an opinion of what is righteous but our opinion doesn't matter because God will judge us by what he has instructed us in his word what is right and what is wrong. Highlighting verses from Romans 3, Bro. Mark expressed our need for God and our need to hear God's word preached. We need to remember what God has brought us from and where we could have been. We need not be caught up in the minutia of religion but serve God as he leads us. Reading verses from Matthew 23 Bro. Mark warned us not to become a proud people thinking we are more holy or righteous than anyone else. We must be humble and have a right attitude toward those around us. We cannot pretend with God. We must be true. Bro. Mark Read Romans 3:21 and spoke of Jesus fulfillment of the law. Expressing that we need to believe in the shed blood of a risen savior, we must be saved and live a life wholly and acceptable. God has set a standard that has not changed and will not change. Christ is the standard and his righteousness is what we must seek. God can use us to help others find the way if we will be humble and be caring to those we witness to. Things are not hopeless. Christ is still righteous and can save. The blood of Christ can be applied if people will seek his righteousness.

We sang "Nothing But the Blood" as an invitation hymn. Bro. Eddie asked for testimonies. Several were given. Announcement was made the Trustee meeting will be before lunch in the front classroom.

Using Haggai 2:3 as a text, Bro. Jimmy spoke concerning the temple Solomon built and the precious materials used to build and overlay it. Although the first temples were fabulous the temple of Christ is the greatest of all. Christ came to a world of sinners to be a deliverer. Christ is the only begotten of the Father. The first temples were temporal but the temple of Christ is eternal. No house can be built to contain God. He giveth to all life and breath. We are stones of this temple with Christ as the chief corner stone. This is a spiritual temple. Reading I Corinthians 3:9 Bro. Jimmy reminded us to take heed how we build there on. Ye are the Temple of God if the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. We must be separate from the world because the temple of God is holy. Glory not in the things of this world. ## YOUTH CAMP

“America, One Nation Under God” was the theme for the 51st camp, Youth Camp 2010. Rev. Nick Whited was the evangelist this year. Bro. Nick did a great job ministering the Word to the campers and adults. The campers were excited each evening to see what Bro. Nick would have to share as an object lesson before each sermon nightly. Bro. Nick had suffered for several weeks from physical issues. It was a miracle of God that he was able to attend the camp. It was even more joyous to see how God blessed throughout the week in giving strength both physically and spiritually to Bro. Nick. Each day campers attended bible study, craft (for the younger classes), and quiz time. Campers also participated in activities on the playground each day. Basketball, volleyball, table tennis and talent show were among the activities available. A delicious dinner was served each evening, and a snack was provided twice a day. We gathered each evening before the sermon to sing praises to God led by Sister Lora Sink. We had an average daily attendance of 98 campers 18 years old and younger.

Wednesday evening campers of the age of 8 to 18, with permission from their parents, were allowed to spend the night. Volleyball, knock out and table tennis games were played throughout the evening with pizza as our bed time snack and then very little sleep.

The Youth Camp committee would like to thank all teachers, kitchen help, the music leader, outside helpers and all other volunteers who worked so hard throughout the week. We thank Rev. Randy Brown and his son Bro. Ethan Brown from South Kentucky Association for coming up and sharing some adventures from their missionary trips to Haiti.

We want to thank the churches for their donations to the camp. Without these contributions we would not be able to have Youth Camp. We also would like to thank those who came to the worship services in support of the camp. A special thanks to the family who donated the money to purchase t-shirts. We trust you will remember Youth Camp in your prayers all year. We ask that we as an association of believers remember our youth each day in our prayers.

SBMI REPRESENTATIVE

The SBMI met on April 17, 2010 for our yearly meeting at the Nolin Campground in Kentucky, at the Ministers and Deacons Annual Meeting. We met with all that were going to the mission field this year. That was Rev. Steve Palmer, Rev. Jerry Ridge, Rev. Ed Tharpe and Rev. Mark Polston who were going to the Ivory Coast. We also met with Rev. Randy Brown from South Kentucky about his work in Haiti. Rev. Randy Brown, Rev. Jerry Ridge and Rev. Johnny Davis went back to Haiti in April.

In January SBMI met with Bro. Steve in Columbus, Indiana before he went to the Ivory Coast to teach at the Bible Institute and tries to visit all the churches. Bro. Steve said the people were very excited to get Bro. Jerry's letter and they were pleased that Bro. Ed Tharpe and Bro. Mark Polston were coming with him. In July, Bro. Steve and Sis. Rhonda left to return to the Ivory Coast for about six months. They should be returning right before Christmas in December.

In February, Rev. Randy Brown left for Haiti to help in the clinic. Six weeks later Bro. Randy, Bro. Jerry Ridge and Bro. Johnny Davis returned to help with the medical end but to evangelize with the help of Bro. Jerry and Bro. Johnny Davis for the need is very great there also. Bro. Jerry said he was very impressed to see how our offerings were being used. He was very thankful for the work Bro. Randy Brown has been doing with the medical team for the last several years.

Bro. Jerry said the trip to the Ivory Coast was very rewarding and memorable. Bro. Ed Tharpe and Bro. Mark Polston who accompanied him in June and July to the mission field were very, very helpful. He didn't believe three men together for 32 days could have possibly gotten along better than the three of them. They had a great time. Bro. Jerry said the highlight of the trip was the conversions experienced by 5 souls in the village of Laudi-Ga. They helped with several building projects this year, with new church buildings being started in four villages. They helped with dormitories at Bondoukou and worked on the wall at Loudi-ba.

Please continue to pray for our missionaries and their families and support them also with financial funds. Special thanks to all of the churches who gave and supported with many offerings and the burden for mission work. They have been a great blessing to SBMI

COMMITTEE REPORTS

SEPARATE BAPTIST BIBLE INSTITUTE

We are happy to report the Separate Baptist Bible Institute held classes in the fall of 2009 with Rev. Mark Polston teaching classes entitled "Sanctification – The Forgotten Doctrine" and in the spring of 2010 Rev. Jerry Ridge taught four classes titled "Prayer", "Faith", "Vision" and "Church Growth". The classes were well attended and very interesting.

Each session included four Saturday morning classes at the Edinburgh church Fellowship Hall from 9:00 a.m. till noon. We want to extend our thanks to the Edinburgh Separate Baptist church for allowing the Bible Institute to convene at this ideal facility.

We greatly appreciate the interest shown and the participation of all the students. We want to make sure everyone is aware that childcare is available during each class at no cost so your younger children can be cared for while you are in class.

Your committee hopes to continue this fall with a class entitled "Why the Millennial Matters". Rev. Mark Polston will be leading this most interesting study into the Separate Baptists' belief of Amillennialism which is stated in Article 12 of the General Association Articles of Doctrine and is also referenced in the Central Indiana By-Law Article 5.

We your committee would like to encourage everyone to set aside time to attend these classes, which is a work toward improving a persons' understanding of the truth found in God's Word.

OBITUARY REPORT

“And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

Rev. 14:13

Edinburgh:	Hubert Hadley
Mount Zion:	Viretta Gardner, Don Purdue
Salem:	Rosa Unger
Shiloh:	Edron Eades

Several of our loved ones have passed from life on this earth unto life eternal with Jesus Christ our Savior. Our hearts grieve at their passing, yet we rejoice knowing that we can see them again in that heavenly city where, “God shall wipe all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain for the former things are passed away.” (Rev. 21:4)

“Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints”. (Psalms 116:15)

“Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. (John 11:25)

We have asked Rev. Kentlin Floyd to come forward with a few words and prayer in memory of those passed on this year.

MINISTRY AND DOCTRINE

We your committee of ministry and doctrine submit the following report.

Romans 10:15 advises us the necessity of a God called ministry.

Romans 1:16 tells us of the importance of the preaching of the gospel in order for souls to be saved and the responsibility to feed the flock of God, caring for them as shepherds of the flock. Ministers should seek God's will for his life and labor to do that work.

1 Timothy 3:1-7 and Titus 1:6-9 provide us with the requirements for a minister. 2 Peter 2:1-3 tell us we must defend the truth and stand against false doctrines.

2 Timothy 2:15 encourages ministers to continue studying the word and being rooted in the faith. We continue to encourage our ministers and deacons to attend the Bible Institute provided by the Central Indiana Association along with associational meetings and Ministers & Deacons Institutes as tools to accomplish this goal.

- Homosexuality. Romans 1:25-27; I Corinthians 6:9
- Indecency (Including Dress). I Timothy 2:9, 4:12

SUNDAY SCHOOL

We your committee on Sunday school, believe it is an essential work of the Church and is the primary method of teaching the Word of God. Our superintendents and teachers should be spiritual and have a sincere desire to know the Word themselves and teach it to others. Our Superintendents should encourage our churches to invite others to attend Sunday school.

Teachers should use the classroom setting to witness to the lost, study and explore the eternal truths of God's Word, encourage Christians to grow spiritually, and be a friend in time of need. Christ left us a wonderful example of his teaching. He taught many things in his Sermon on the Mount, he also showed a personal interest in the children. "Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the Kingdom of God." (Mark 10:14)

Sunday school is an excellent opportunity to reach and teach children and families God's Word. Lessons taught in our Sunday Schools can have a lasting impression and influence. "Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old, he will not depart from it." (Proverbs 22:6)

We encourage our churches to hold Sunday school in high regard and work for its success. "Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest" (John 4:35). "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: Because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee," (Hosea 4:6)

EDUCATION

"Learn of me;" Jesus states in Matthew 11:29.

The church is given the task of providing a means whereby the world is exposed to the truth of Christ and can learn of Him. Education is a vital mission of the church.

We, the Education Committee, believe that every Christian should have a time each day for the study of God's Word. We believe group study is for all ages in church and in our homes and will help us become more spiritual. We believe that Sunday School is an important part of the education, especially for our people. "Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old, he will not depart from it." (Proverbs 22:6).

We as adults should always set a good Christian example before our children and the world. It is necessary that the role and conduct of young Christian men and women be taught by example and by our elder brothers and sisters in Christ. We believe that all Sunday School teachers should earnestly study the lesson and pray before teaching. All pastors and preachers should study, pray, and earnestly seek the leading of God before entering the pulpit. We encourage our churches to hold annual Vacation Bible Schools and attend the Central Indiana Association Youth Camp. These are excellent means of furthering our outreach. Today, education is more important than ever, therefore, it should be expressed and encouraged from the pulpits in a positive manner. The Central Indiana Association conducts the Separate Baptist Bible Institute. The curriculum for these classes is carefully chosen to emphasize important Bible subjects. The classes are available to anyone who wishes to attend. We encourage everyone to further his education to the level that the Spirit directs him so that he can best be used in God's service.

MISSIONS

We your committee on missions, wish to remind the body of how important the work of missions is. Jesus said, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost" Matt. 28:19. This commandment is first and foremost the function of the church. If we fail to obey this commandment, then all of our other labors are in vain.

The work of missions is not limited to missionaries, pastors or deacons. It is the responsibility of every believer. Jesus likened the kingdom of Heaven as to a man who took a far journey and gave to every man a work. Mark 13:34

Missions are the lifeblood of the church. Without missions, our churches will continue to decline. If we desire to see our churches grow we must recognize that the mission field is beyond the four walls of the church building. We cannot expect sinners to be interested in coming to us for they are already at enmity against God. We must deliver the gospel message to them. "How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard?" Rom. 10:14

A preacher in the New Testament was a herald, one who delivered news, and was distinguished from the office of the bishop. All believers can be "preachers" of the gospel and all ought to.

We urge our churches to consider this calling and find opportunities and ways to deliver the gospel message outside of their regular church meetings. We urge all members to realize that they have a stake in the mission field and that if they want to be in God's will they will work together in the mission field. We believe senders are as important as goers. I Sam. 30:24

"The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise." Prov. 11:30

“Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.” 1Cor. 15:34

Every saved individual receives from God a burden for lost souls. May we pray as did David of old that God would search us to see where we stand with God for if our hearts are right we will seek ways to reach others.

When we leave church on Sunday morning, we enter the mission field. May our lives be a light to others.

“Say not ye, there are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? Behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.” John 4:35-36

YOUNG PEOPLE

We the Young People Committee believe our association has a great challenge in increasing the interest of our youth in the work of God. We believe that our Youth Camp, Youth Union Meetings, our Sunday Schools and our Vacation Bible Schools are an important way to encourage and increase our youth in our churches. “I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me” (Proverbs 8:17) “Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;” (Ecclesiastes 12:1)

It must be a priority in our homes to conduct daily Bible study and prayer as well as counseling our children in the way of the Lord. “And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up” (Deuteronomy 6:7).

We must free ourselves from the many worldly concerns to devote more time to the spiritual growth of our families. (Ephesians 5:15,16 Colossians 3:20,21)

We must as a church show the love that Jesus showed to us and be excited about all His blessings He has bestowed on us and to our youth. This will in turn encourage and excite our youth to tell their friends and family about Jesus. “Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him.” (Luke 8:39)

We as adults and youth must strive harder to get more young people involved in our church services and use them in our Church to bring more laborers into the field. (Matthew 9:37,38) The young people are not only the church of tomorrow, but the church of today also. God will continue to bless the youth and all future generations who follow Him.

“Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.” (1 Timothy 4:12) We would encourage our churches to have a Youth Program and weekly youth meetings in their individual churches. We encourage parents, grandparents, neighbors and lay people to help bring our youth to our services and to help uplift and pray for our youth.

Jesus said in Mark 10:14 “Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.”

WAYS and MEANS

We your Ways and Means Committee believe we should all have the goal of bringing the plan of salvation to the lost. In order to do this, we must use any means that God may grant us to accomplish this goal.

Moses was asked of God, “What is in thine hand?” (Exodus 4:2) Moses’ response was, “A rod.” God then used this rod as a means to help deliver the children of Israel.

We must then ask, “What is in our hands and what means do we possess to see souls saved?”

God has given us the ability to fast and pray for the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. (James 5:16)

God has given us the opportunity to encourage and financially support the mission work abroad and at home.

Using the different means granted to us by God, we have been enabled to accomplish the command of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, “Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. (Mark 16:15)

“And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.” (Acts 2:1)

Go with God for all things are possible.

“That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.” (John 3:6)

“God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.” (John 4:24)

“But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.” (James 1:22)

Let us live righteousness so God can reveal all things to us that we need to do.

Missionaries Steve and Rhonda Palmer, Ivory Coast, Africa

We send you greetings from Ivory Coast, West Africa. There have been numerous events to take place since our arrival. The first order of prayer request is the slated presidential elections for October 31, 2010. The news media has said September will be the 'black month'; meaning protests until elections. Already there is trouble in the large towns and yesterday the U.N. made the trip around our place three times, and so we went to the U.N. headquarters in Bondoukou to give them our coordinates and phone numbers. As we entered the compound there was a parapet with a soldier in flak gear; guns trained on the street below. We were invited into the officer's area, sat in chairs and were told to wait for the commandant. We had the privilege to meet the chaplain also. And so we request you remember the Christians in prayer as we await elections.

As many of you know Alain's 15 year old daughter died of snake bite last week. She and her younger sisters were walking to their field when about 1 ½ miles from home the snake lashed at her. She and her sisters began running back through the path towards the village when an unsaved man approached and they explained they needed help. He cut some leaves and told her to eat them and he would go kill the snake and left them there without any assistance. They began running again toward home and came upon another sinner man who put a tourniquet on her leg and left her as well. When they finally reached home she was in distress with black blood in the leg veins as Alain rushed her to a clinic where she received 2 antivenom injections. Upon her worsening they told him to take her to the nearest hospital and they began to try to save her life. The hospital sent him to the pharmacy to buy more medicine and while he was negotiating with the pharmacist to take partial payment with the only money he had left, the hospital called and said it was too late, not to bother with anymore medicine.

Institute dorms- enclosed is the latest picture of construction. The hope is to have it done by time for Institute. The youth have been working hard carrying sand in pans on their heads and in wheel barrows, the men have made bricks and mixed cement, and the women are cooking and when needed carry bricks on their heads to the masons.

Recent conversions- the sister of Patrice at Kpanan, a man at Kpanan, man at Tchiramisse who was saved two weeks before the General Association and died a few days afterwards are the recent additions to the church here.

The Muslims are finishing their month long celebration of Ramadan. Yesterday, was called the 'Night of Destiny' which is observed by displaying all their young daughters on an elevated platform on which they danced waving cow tails as the men view for future wives and concubines. It was very reminiscent of the slave trade days, as dowry will be paid to the parents.

Association- attached is a few photos of the General Association here. We had 673 attend including children, 498 adults take communion and participate in feet washing. There were 30 baptized in the new baptistry and one rededication on the last day of the meeting. The graduates of the Bible Institute were given their certificates, next year's evangelists were introduced, and there is a young man who has answered the call to preach at Kpanan.

In conclusion, remember the village of Kochiri where Alain and his family reside. Pastor Honore, Anderson from Kohui and Pascal from Laoudi-Ba boarded the midnight bus to travel more than 11 hours through the night over rough roads to officiate the funeral and comfort the family. It was a testament to the village the love brethren have for each other and what God's requirements are to enter His Kingdom. The villagers were very surprised that we would sacrifice safety, sleep, money and time to help God's servants.

4. That salvation, regeneration, justification, sanctification and redemption are through faith in the life, death, resurrection, ascension, and intercession of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. John 17:19; Acts 13:39; Titus 2:14; Rom. 3:24-26

5. We believe that he who endures to the end the same shall be saved. Rev. 2:10; Matt. 24:13

6. That the joys of the righteous and punishment of the wicked will be eternal. Matt. 25:46; Dan. 12:2; Rom. 5:21

7. We believe that baptism, the Lord's Supper and feet washing are ordinances of Jesus Christ, appointed in the Church, and none but true believers are proper subjects, and the only proper mode of baptism is immersion of believers. Matt. 28:19-20; Acts 2:41; John 13:14; I Peter 3:21; Matt. 3:14; I Cor. 11:23-26

8. We believe in the sanctity of the first day of the week or Lord's Day, which ought to be observed and spent in public or private worship of God and that we should abstain from worldly concerns except in cases of necessity or mercy. Acts 20:7; I Cor. 16:2

9. We believe in the resurrection of the body, both of the just and the unjust, but every man to his own order. Those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of damnation, and that God hath appointed a day in which He will judge the world in righteousness by Jesus Christ. I Thes. 4:16; I Cor. 15; John 5:28-29

10. That it is our duty to be tender and affectionate one to another and in honor preferring one another, to study the happiness of God's people in general and do all we can to support, promote, and spread the Gospel. Rom. 12:10; Luke 14:23

11. We believe that Jesus Christ, by the grace of God, tasted death for everyone, and that all may partake of his Divine benefits through repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Also, infants and those who have never developed the mental ability to receive regeneration, are included in the covenant of God's grace. John 3:15-17; Acts 4:12

- the King James Version of the Bible being the choice for English speaking people.
